Sub:- APREIS, Hyderabad-Instructions for student's safety and security in APRE Institutions-Regarding.

Ref:- 1) Procs.Rc.No.3863/C1-2/2006, dated 28.09.2007 of the Secretary, APREI Society (Regd), Hyderabad.

2) Procs.Rc.No.3863/C1-2/2009, dated 19.03.2009 of the Secretary, APREI Society (Regd), Hyderabad.

-:oOo:-

The attention of all the Principals of A.P.R.E. Institutions in the State are hereby invited to the references cited, wherein detailed guidelines were issued for the safety and security of students in the Institutions.

They are further informed that, complaints are being received that students were being made to do household chores and other works by the teachers. The students who refuses to attend to such personal works of Principals and staff are beaten up by the staff. Incidents of such nature are coming to light through news papers and complaints of parents.

It is also informed that, utilizing the students for the household chores and other personal requirements is a serious offence under Conduct Rules and attracts severe punishment. The Principal, ATP and House Masters seems to have not been taking these kinds of incidents to notice and over looking the issue.

Therefore, all the Principals are hereby directed to:-

- a) Inform the staff of the issue and instruct them not to involve students in these kinds of personal works;
- b) Form a Committee with the Principal, ATP and House Masters to keep a watch on this aspect;
- c) To review the position with the above Committee once in a fortnight;
- d) Also identify atleast two (2) students from each class and talk to them frequently as whether any staff member is indulging students in his/her personal works; and
- e) Bring any such incident immediately to the personal notice of the Secretary in a confidential manner.

All the Regional Dy.Secretaries, Dy.Secretaries, AGOs are requested to watch the above aspect during their visit to the institutions and should bring the matter to the notice of the undersigned immediately for further necessary action.

Receipt of these Proceedings should be acknowledged.
